Wayland Nov 6/64

Dear Garrison

179 Please not insert my communication now that the campaign is over. Of course I do not blame you nor wonder that it was omitted. There cannot be a doubt that the Northern malignants, far worse if possible than the open traitors, are destined to as complete a prostration in the electioneering field as their confederates are ultimately in the battlefield.

Yrs as ever

O. L. Child